allow yourself to wait until the last minute for your Easter Outfits. Many can come during the week just as well as to wait until Saturday. By so doing you will avoid the rush and give those a better chance who cannot leave their work until Saturday. Last Saturday we could not possibly take care of our customers. Next Saturday there will be a mob and those who are caught in it must have patience.

FRIDAY, APRIL 13, 1900.

Professor John Wesley Churchill died at his home on the hill, at 10 o'clock this morning of his 60th year of age, after an illness of five weeks. The lateness of the hour defers extended notice until next week, but the sympathy of the entire community will be extended to the family in their great loss.

Among the G. A. R., Woman's Relief Corps and Sons of Veterans officers who will attend are the following: from the Massachusetts department, G. A. R.—Senior Vice Commander Silas A. Barton of Waltham; Junior Vice Commander W. W. Blackmar of Boston; Chaplain Rev. D. W. Davis of Amesbury; Medical Director E. Proctor Pierce of Springfield; Assistant Adjutant General Elward P. Preble of Boston; Judge Advocate James H. Wolff of Brighton; Assistant Quartermaster General Dwight O. Judd of Holyoke; Deputy Inspector Frank P. Clark of Ware; Senior Aide A. M. Stickney of Medford; Andrew P. Fisher, East Boston, Henry L. Gardner, Springfield, Rufus A. Soule, New Bedford, George Merrick, Worcester, Joshua Bartlett, Brockton, members of the Council: from the W. R. C.—Department President Mrs. Mary L. Gilman of Boston; Senior Vice President Mrs. Marie W. Going of Somerville; Junior Vice President Mrs. Dorcas Lyman of Brighton; Secretary Miss Mary Elliot of Somerville; Deputy Inspector Mrs. Catherine Stillings of Boston; Treasurer Mrs. Sarah E. Fuller of East Boston; from the S. of V.—Division Commander F. C. Warner of Salem; Col. Charles K. Darling, U. S. Marshal and Past Commander-in-Chief of the Sons of Veterans, Boston. Previous to the reception the above mentioned visitors will be entertained by Commander Smith at his residence. A meeting of the council will also be held.

Roads and Sidewalks.

The serious washouts of the winter have made for Superintendent Lovejoy a bigger task than usual in the line of spring cleaning of the highways of Andover. In nearly every part of the town the roads have many places where serious damage has been done, and it will cut quite a slice off the annual appropriation before the necessary rebuilding has been attended to.

When that has been done the citizens may properly look for a beginning on several important new pieces of road. Of these there are none which would give satisfaction to more people than the piece of road from the Rubber factory to Stinson's bridge, and the piece from Elm square to the Locke residence. There are undoubtedly other parts of the town where new roadways are needed, but from a careful survey there seems to be none where long stretches of good road are broken into by such poor short pieces.

As a rope is no stronger than its weakest part, so in a measure a road is no better than its one mudhole. By building the two small stretches referred to, the weak spots in the two most important highways leading from the town, will be repaired.

A correspondent asks us to call the attention of the street superintendent to the very urgent need of a concrete walk on at least one side of School street. It is a pleasant duty to comply with this request, for there is no part of Andover with more foot travel and a poorer walk, at this time of year. But unfortunately the superintendent hasn't the entire jurisdiction in saying where concrete walks shall be built. The abutments are the first ones to move in such matters and unfortunately again, the abutments on this particular street don't seem to want a concrete walk in front of their houses. We are going to venture however, to pass along this request, designed for the Superintendent of streets, for we don't believe they have realized how much benefit concrete walks would be to the hundreds of students and citizens who pass their doors. They are themselves but few in numbers but their street attracts many.

The expense is but trifling when based upon a fifty per cent assessment and School street residents can do no better deed in the line of public improvement than to write a petition for concrete walks this year.

The Citizens and the Students.

The fake fire alarms of the past week have aroused the engineers to action which will not be relished by the residents of the hill.

To cut off that entire section of the town where the suspected students live, means to deprive all the residents of the protection which the fire alarm affords. There will be many who will feel that they are unjustly punished, but such ones must not forget that for many years they have been party to all manner of malicious mischief committed by the students, in that they have never been willing to aid in any manner in their detection.

A large majority of the student body have no sympathy with such misdoings as this latest freak of boyish mischief. But if one of their number is unjustly accused they may be relied upon every time to resent it in a body. They should not however allow their school loyalty to bias their honest judgment in deciding what is the right thing to do.

There has always been a splendid spirit of good feeling between the town and its officials and the students of Phillips Academy. The best friends in the entire preparatory school life of hundreds of boys who have gone out of Andover, were the men with whom they dealt, and the officials they came in contact with in Andover. The citizens at large like the boys and never lose an opportunity to show it. They patronize their concerts and their games. They subscribe to their funds and buildings, and while they are bound to continue to do so, their feelings must necessarily be somewhat influenced by the manner in which the boys treat them in return.

The time to stop the increasing strained feeling between town and gown is right now. No more fake alarms and no more excited citizens, will make the same ending to the 1900 prank time that has marked all other P. A. prank times—they all lived happily together ever afterward.

Andover Press Annual Meeting.

Fryer presided and the following officers were elected: directors, Horace H. Tyer, Lincoln Poor, John N. Cole, John W. Bell, J. A. Smart, Geo. F. Smith, S. D. Stevens, clerk, J. A. It is to be held in St. Matthews hall, Bank building, next Monday evening. The Raymond Male quartette of this place will sing. Invitations are extended to Comrades, Sons of Veterans, Post-Associates, Spanish Veterans and ladies, members of the Relief corps and gentlemen, officers of Masonic lodge and ladies.

Among the G. A. R., Woman's Relief Corps and Sons of Veterans officers who will attend are the following: from the Massachusetts department, G. A. R.—Senior Vice Commander Silas A. Barton of Waltham; Junior Vice Commander W. W. Blackmar of Boston; Chaplain Rev. D. W. Davis of Amesbury; Medical Director E. Proctor Pierce of Springfield; Assistant Adjutant General Elward P. Preble of Boston; Judge Advocate James H. Wolff of Brighton; Assistant Quartermaster General Dwight O. Judd of Holyoke; Deputy Inspector Frank P. Clark of Ware; Senior Aide A. M. Stickney of Medford; Andrew P. Fisher, East Boston, Henry L. Gardner, Springfield, Rufus A. Soule, New Bedford, George Merrick, Worcester, Joshua Bartlett, Brockton, members of the Council: from the W. R. C.—Department President Mrs. Mary L. Going of Somerville; Junior Vice President Mrs. Dorcas Lyman of Brighton; Secretary Miss Mary Elliot of Somerville; Deputy Inspector Mrs. Catherine Stillings of Boston; Treasurer Mrs. Sarah E. Fuller of East Boston; from the S. of V.—Division Commander F. C. Warner of Salem; Col. Charles K. Darling, U. S. Marshal and Past Commander-in-Chief of the Sons of Veterans, Boston. Previous to the reception the above mentioned visitors will be entertained by Commander Smith at his residence. A meeting of the council will also be held.

Recital by Miss Cole's Pupils.

The second piano recital by pupils of Miss Maud M. Cole was held at the November club, house last Friday evening, April 6, at which were present, besides the parents, many friends of the pupils. The pupils were assisted in their recital by Miss Geraldine Damon, contralto, of Boston, whose beautiful singing added greatly to the pleasure of the interested listeners. Miss Damon has a voice of rare power and it shows that careful and skillful training has been given it.

The scholars, some of them little tots, played finely, all showing by their work the thoroughness and skill of their instruction.

Whittier Estate Sold.

An extensive real estate deal was consummated yesterday when the Whittier property, a triangular piece of land containing about three acres, was sold to J. H. Campion through the agency of Barnett Rogers. This property is situated nearly in the centre of the residential section of the town and is bounded and has frontage on three streets, Elm, Summer and Whittier.

Included in the purchase is a two story and a half, double tenement house occupied by Miss Whittier, the former owner of the place, and Mrs. Lizzie Dundas. Both these tenants will retain their residence.

Mr. Campion intends to divide his purchase into house lots to be disposed of at reasonable prices. They will make convenient, valuable and delightfully located sites for residences. This is the second extensive real estate deal that Mr. Campion has been a party to in the past two or three months.

Marriage.

BATCHELDER—WARDWELL.

The marriage of David B. Batchelder to Miss Gertrude F. Wardwell, daughter of B. Frank Wardwell, occurred at the latter's residence on Summer street, Tuesday afternoon at 1.15 o'clock.

Rev. F. A. Wilson of the Free church, performed the ceremony in the presence of the immediate family of the bride, only.

The groom is a resident of Decatur, Ill., and after a short wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Batchelder will make their home in that place.

The bride has been at home for over a year taking care of her father, and her mother, who has since passed away. Among those present at the wedding were the bride's brother and young wife and her four sisters.

Must Enter Sewer.

The Board of health passed an order at their last meeting that any house abutting on the sewer must enter before the end of the season. It is imperative that they make their application as soon as possible as it will have to be done this year, and if they attempt to do it before the cold weather they will be saved a considerable expense.

Property which abuts on streets with a sewer but whose owners make use of a cesspool, having permission either written or verbal to do so, is included in the new order of things. Such property is exempt only in special and unusual cases when the board of health shall grant new permits after they shall have made a careful inspection of the premises.

WHOLESALE ABUSE.

Andover's Fire Alarm Sounded Without Cause Four Times Since Saturday Night.

Residents of Andover are very indignant over the wholesale abuse which has been made of the fire alarm system since last Saturday night. There have been four of them sounded in all. The first one came in from Box 37 on Salem street at 10 o'clock Saturday night and the department answered it promptly. On Monday afternoon, Box 46 at the corner of Main and Morton streets was rung about 3 o'clock and again the department answered it on the run. When, at 8 o'clock the same evening, an alarm was sounded from Box 35 on Porter street, many said "another false alarm" and although the department answered it, they did not make as fast time as was possible.

Phillips academy students were suspected of having been the ones who tampered with the alarm system and Chief Frye began to work out his first case. The selectmen of the town decided to offer a reward of $100 for information which would lead to the arrest and conviction of the party or parties who had sounded the alarm needlessly, and notices to this effect were posted conspicuously about the streets of Andover.

Through information obtained from various sources, Chief Frye went to Oliver Tobin, a Phillips academy student from California living at Mrs. R. A. Tilton's on Salem street, a prominent candidate for the baseball team at first base, and got an admission from him which practically demonstrated that he was guilty of having rung in a false alarm, with a statement that he would like to have the matter settled quietly. He was given a preliminary trial before Judge Poor, Wednesday evening at 7 o'clock at which he pleaded "not guilty," and was held in $500 bonds to appear at a hearing to be held Thursday afternoon. Two well known citizens went on his bond and he was released. Another student was also suspected and incriminated himself to a certain extent when questioned by the chief. This was Gilbert Browning of Morristown, N. J., rooming at Miss E. P. Richardson's on Salem street, a middle at the academy, and he was also summoned to appear before Judge Poor at the same time as Tobin.

At the trial, Tobin and Browning were represented by Lawyer Cox from the office of C. A. DeCourcy of Lawrence. Chief Frye was the only witness called, and made a statement showing the manner in which Tobin and Browning incriminated themselves. He was cross-examined by Lawyer Cox but repeated the same story. The latter thought that there was no evidence that either of them had sounded an alarm.

Judge Poor wanted to know if value ought not to be attached to the fact that Tobin wanted to settle the matter quietly. Mr. Cox thought not. The judge said that he did not consider the evidence strong enough to hold them for the grand jury as such evidence would not stand in a higher court. "This is an offense of considerable gravity," he continued, "and it is beyond my jurisdiction to sentence them. If I discharge them the chief is in duty bound to put them before the grand jury if he obtains any more evidence. The conduct of the young men would lead me to suspect that they did ring the alarm. I think the chief has done his duty to the community in a commendable manner. An acquittal today will not stop further prosecution for the town must be protected. The practice of ringing false alarms should not be encouraged, but I do not think there is enough evidence to convict these boys, and I will discharge them."

It was thought that the knowledge that the offense was a serious one punishable by a fine of $100 or six months in jail and that the town would take active steps to stop further repetition of this business, would be enough to prevent more false alarms from being rung in, but such was evidently not the case as another alarm was sounded at 10.30 Thursday evening from Box 47 on Bartlett street opposite the schools. The department answered—at a walk. Further steps will be taken to abate the nuisance. If the guilty parties are apprehended it will go hard with them.

INTER-SEMINARY ALLIANCE.

Annual Convention at Earliest Chapel
Tuesday. Addresses and Discussions on Missionary Matters.

On Tuesday, forty four young men from the theological schools of Boston and the vicinity made a pilgrimage to Zion's Hill, to attend the annual convention of the Boston Inter-Seminary Missionary Alliance. Baptists, Methodists, Episcopalians, Universalists, Swedenborgians, and Congregationalists enjoyed a day spent in fellowship and in consideration of the wider opportunities before the church at present; a sign of the unity of aim which binds Protestants together into the one church which has so many denominations, a thought forcibly presented by Professor Moore in welcoming the delegates to historic Andover Hill.

Chairman L. W. Snell called the meeting to order at eleven. The first paper, after the address of welcome, was by A. W. Moulton (Cambridge Episcopal), entitled "The Motive in Foreign Missions." This motive, the speaker said, is primarily that the church is bound, in honor and in love, to finish what Christ came to do. Radical motives are: the church needs exercise in the free air of God's life, in order to preserve itself; that individuals cannot live unto themselves; that souls have a value never to be forgotten; that ethics requires us to bring all men to our moral ideal, which is the character of Christ.

At the present time, moreover, in many lands the heathen are asking for knowledge of Christ; to refuse their request is virtually to deny Him. Then, too, as Americans we have a special responsibility for the welfare of our new possessions. With civilization there comes to newly opened countries a great moral crisis; the old customary standards of right and wrong are overthrown, and evil white men take advantage of the resulting social disintegration; consequently we must aid in establishing a native type of virtue. Such are the motives for missions; we pray "Thy Kingdom come," but unless we do what we can the prayer is a lie.

In the discussion which followed D. M. Brookman (Episcopal), Rev. Alexander Henry (Swedenborgian), P. J. Frick (B. U.), Vincent Kavi (B. T.), G. W. Colson (Tufts), and W. W. Rockwell (Andover) took part.

The noon-day devotional meeting was conducted by Charles W. Harvey (Swedenborgian). The afternoon session was opened by Anson Phelps Stokes, Jr., (Episcopal). The first paper, by Stanley G. Spear (Tufts), advocated the establishment in this country of a school where missionaries could get technical training. The course, he said, should embrace the history of missions, study of the people to be evangelized, practical psychology, the principles of pedagogy, and business sense, together with some music and manual training. To this paper A. P. Stokes, Jr., made a good reply, based on personal observations in the Far East.

E. C. Lindsay (B. U.) then read on Alaska as a Mission Field. He said that the work of the bloodthirsty Spaniards in Mexico and Peru is being repeated in Alaska by Americans.

He especially advocated the homes for girls now being established, which not only train girls in habits of industry and educate teachers, but are forming the nucleus of sound public morals. Without such schools, the girls must undergo a year's imprisonment when they are growing up, and later they are liable to open and shameless sale by their relatives.

Left to themselves, the speaker said in conclusion, this simple people will be trampled down in the rush of economic development into the mire of vices worse than we have ever known; yet over them waves the American flag.

The last paper, by N. R. Wood (Baptist), asked, What is to be the message of the missionary which can reach alike the lowest savage, the suave intellectual Brahmin, the subtle philosophical Hindu, and at the same time have power to move men in masses, as men move in China. The answer is, the simple, spiritual yet concrete message of the cross.

At the business meeting the various seminaries elected their representatives on the executive committee of the alliance. It was voted to meet next year at Boston University, and Andover was given a vote of thanks for the hospitality shown the delegates.

In the evening, Dr. Alexander McKenzie of Cambridge, gave an eloquent address on Prayer. The Seminary Quartette sang.

The attendance on the morning and afternoon sessions was about sixty. The delegates were entertained at the Mansion house, and in the intervals of the day's discussions enjoyed Andover air and scenery, on a day when earth and sky were at their best.

Following was the program in detail: Reception to delegates, 10.30 to 11 a. m.; morning session—11.00 opening service, L. W. Snell; address of welcome, Professor G. F. Moore; 11.30 paper: "The Missionary Motive," A. W. Moulton, Episcopal Theological School, Cambridge; discussion opened by D. M. Brookman; 12.30, Noon-day devotional service, Chas. W. Harvey, New Church Theological School, Cambridge; recess; afternoon session, 2.00, opening service, Anson Phelps Stokes, Jr., Episcopal Theological School, Cambridge; 2.10, paper: "The Technical School in Modern Foreign Missionary Work," Stanley G. Spear, Tufts Divinity School; discussion opened by W. H. A. Moore; 3.00, paper: "Alaska as a Mission Field—Present and Future," E. C. Lindsay, Boston University School of Theology; 3.45, paper: "The Missionary of the Cross," N. R. Wood, Newton Theological Institution; discussion opened by J. C. Robbins; 4.30, Holy Week service in Seminary church, Professor E. Y. Hincks; 5.30, business meeting; 6.00, recess; evening session, in Seminary church, 7.30, opening service, Professor Geo. F. Moore; address: "Prayer—An Adjustment," Rev. Alexander McKenzie, Cambridge.

The delegates present were as follows: Episcopal theological school at Cambridge, Glenn T. Morse, William W. Morse, D. M. Brookman, H. Birkhead, Charles W. Henry, A. W. Moulton, Edward Sturges, W. A. Thompson, Anson P. Stokes, William S. Packer, Jr., Smith O. Dexter; New Church Theological school of Cambridge, Dean Theodore F. Wright, Russell Eaton, Herbert C. Small, John H. Hunter, Charles W. Rumage Sale.

For the joint benefit of the Village Improvement society and the Andover Guild, it is proposed to hold a "Rumage Sale" at the Guild House on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, April 20th, 27th and 28th.

The "Rumage Sale," though only recently devised, has already proved of great value in our social economy in New England. It aims to relieve people who are suffering from the possession of things of value which they do not want, thereby making spring house-cleaning easier and removing the accumulation of goods people are loth to part with and never use. Such articles as the "Rumage Sale" collects, displays attractively and sells at a very modest price to those who can really use them.

The general committee in charge of the sale, consisting of Mrs. William Marland, Mrs. Charles E. Abbott, Mrs. F. A. Andrews and Mrs. W. G. Goldsmith, will be glad to receive contributions of old clothing, old books, old furniture, old china, old bric-a-brac, "any old thing," in fact, which while of no special value to the owner may be of value to someone else. Articles used by George Washington are especially desired, but such pedigree is not absolutely insisted upon. Articles may be left at the Guild House during the superintendent's hours, viz., from 3 to 5 p. m., Mondays, Tuesdays, Thursdays and Fridays. Bulky articles will be called for on Tuesday and Wednesday, April 24 and 25, if request is made to the committee.

Further features of the great sale will be duly announced. Send in your donations promptly!

WEST PARISH.

The degree staff of the Grange worked the first and second degrees at the meeting Tuesday evening.

There will be a Patriotic entertainment under the auspices of the Church Aid Society at the vestry next Thursday evening, April 19, to consist of tableaux and an old fashioned supper.

On last Friday evening, the first annual social party of the "Little Four," occurred at the Grange hall with about thirty couples in attendance. Music was rendered by Thomas' orchestra and the program, a lengthy one, was much enjoyed. During intermission, ice cream and cake were served by Caterer Rhodes in the banquet hall. The "Four," consisting of F. A. Hill, C. A. Hill, P. C. Moar and R. W. Coleman, acted as aids.

No Guesswork Here.

If you have rheumatism, take TARTAR-LITHINE. If you take TARTAR-LITHINE, you take a remedy which has nothing in its nature even remotely resembling chance. The cure is based upon medical science. It is no experiment; it has cured; it will cure; it does cure all forms of rheumatism. This is what a prominent New Jersey physician says:

SPRINGWOOD, N. J., Aug. 3d.
Dear Sirs:—Please send me by mail four more bottles of Tartar-lithine.

I will here state, in justice, that this is the most welcome remedy that has come into my hands since my beginning of the practice of medicine. It has given me, in every case in which I have used it, the happiest kind of results. I have used discretion, perhaps even more than necessary, in its employment. Old chronic cases, where there is a tendency to calcareous deposits, have been to me the most troublesome patients to give good results. Now these have been the very kind in which I have been using Tartar-lithine with the very happiest results to patients and myself.

The Andover Union auxiliary of the Woman's board will meet on Tuesday at 8 o'clock at the house of Mrs. George F. Moore.

Prof. Smyth of the Seminary, has been chosen as one of the judges to select the names of the great Americans to be commemorated in the Hall of Fame in New York university.

An auction sale of farming implements will be conducted by Barnett Rogers at the estate of Henry M. Hayward, Ballardvale, at 1 o'clock Saturday, April 21.

A very satisfactory rehearsal of the War Song chorus was held in A. O. U. W. hall last evening. The attendance was very gratifying considering the inclemency of the weather. It is expected that more will attend next Tuesday, the night of the next rehearsal. The concert will be given for the benefit of the Andover Burns club, in order to pay off the heavy debt incurred by the failure of the last annual festival.

Card of Thanks.

To the neighbors and friends who, by their sympathy, have helped to brighten the path of life and to make less keen the time of bereavement, and to all who expressed their regards by floral gifts to our son, Davie, we desire to extend our sincere thanks.

MR. AND MRS. JOHN RILEY.

P. A. Briefs.

Capt. Allen of the Yale crew, P. A. '99, was in town yesterday visiting his brother, B. M. Allen of the Phillips faculty.

Among the attractive features proposed for the coming commencement at Phillips academy, is a reunion of the editors of the Phillipian, which was begun by Edward S. Beach, now of Boston, in 1877-78.

Capt. John Codman who died last week in Boston was a pupil in Phillips in 1827-28. He was deeply interested in reviving American commerce; a man of great energy of mind and ceaseless activity. He wrote several volumes and a great number of articles for the periodical press. Since he left the sea he has resided mostly in New York. He was the son of Rev. John Codman of Dorchester, one of the early trustees and benefactors of the academy and seminary.

An unusually handsome volume has just been published by the Scribners, "The Story of John Adams, a New England Schoolmaster." Dr. Adams was the fourth Principal of Phillips Academy, and was in charge from 1810 to 1833. Compared with the present attendance the number of pupils was small but those years are famous for the large numbers of prominent and distinguished men who were pupils. This book has been prepared by one of his grand-daughters assisted by the wife of a great grandson. There are two portraits of Dr. Adams, one of them from the portrait in the Great Hall of the academy. The book contains other illustrations, one of Dr. Adams's residence now Prof. Graves's, and one of the memorial tablet in the chapel of the institution. The biography is one of great interest to all Andover people.

Sewer Extensions.

The Board of Public Works met yesterday afternoon and voted that the sewer extensions down Phillips street be started upon as soon as possible. It is probable that Contractor Farnum will do the work on the same terms as last year.

Extending down Phillips street to the hollow just before reaching Central street, the sewer will be joined by another line from the junction of the School and Central streets. At the place near the brook where the Phillips and Central street sewers intersect, a pumping station with automatic pump will be located to pump the sewerage from this low level to the upper level through an iron pipe to join the Central street sewer beyond School street. From thence it will flow by gravity to the filter beds.

ABBOTT VILLAGE.

The Abbott Village Coal Society meets every Friday evening from 7.30 to 8.30 for the purpose of receiving the weekly payment. This term there has been a large increase. Last year the term ended with orders for 328 1-2 tons; this term there are orders for 588 tons. There will be an opportunity for those who want to join to do so at the half term commencing on Friday, May 4th.

The appearance of the watering carts doing duty on the streets Saturday was most welcome to the residents of the town who have been obliged to endure for the past few days the troublesome dust which streets like Broadway are subject to. STEVENS—FROST.

At the home of Thomas Frost, 50 Eutaw street, a very pretty wedding occurred Monday night when his daughter Miss Sadie Stuart Frost, was united in matrimony to Arthur E. Stevens, Rev. E. P. Tuller of the Second Baptist church performed the ceremony at 7.30 o'clock in the parlor which was decorated for the occasion.

The bride, who was given away by her father, was attired in a gown of white organdy over white mulle, with a veil of tulle and carried bride's roses. She was attended by the bridegroom's sister, Miss Daisy E. Stevens, as bridesmaid, who appeared in white muslin, trimmed with pink ribbon and carried pink carnations.

Representative Archie N. Frost officiated as best man and the ushers were ex-Councilman John A. Patterson and Albert T. Frost.

An informal reception followed the ceremony, in which the bridal party were assisted by Thomas P. Frost and Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Stevens, the bridegroom's parents. Refreshments were served and the happy couple left amid a shower of rice and good wishes, for the 6.30 train to Boston, but where they will spend their honeymoon is unknown. Returning they will reside at 50 Eutaw street and will be at home to friends after June 6.

Mr. and Mrs. Stevens were the recipients of many handsome gifts, including cut glass, china and bric-a-brac.

COURSE APPROVED.

Wilbur F. Morrison who has been under the ban of suspension from the Lawrence High school for the past few weeks, is no longer a member of that school. He is to be formally expelled from the institution on the grounds that his presence is detrimental to the welfare of the school.

Such was the decision of the school board at a special session Tuesday evening, by a vote of 11 to 1. Committeeman Hendry alone voting in the negative. Among those who witnessed the proceedings, there were few who were concerned in the matter. Principal Horne was represented by Lawyer Coulson, and Master Morrison by Lawyer Dow. A number of pupils of the school who, it is alleged, were asked to write articles "roasting" the teachers of the school, were present but were not allowed to testify in the case.

At 2 p. m., Saturday services over the remains of the late Hattie C. Austin, wife of John Austin, Jr., of Salem, N. H., took place from her late home in that town. The ceremonies were conducted by three ministers, Rev. Mr. Bartley read from the scriptures, Rev. Mr. Rowell, the Salem pastor offered prayer and Rev. Mr. Gardner of Sandown, N. H., made appropriate remarks. A double quartet sang three songs. Among the floral tributes were a pillow, a standing star, two large baskets, a bunch of calla lilies, and numerous smaller pieces. The remains rested in a lavender broadcloth casket with oxidized silver trimmings and were placed in a hearse. The interior was lined with lavender silk, and the gown, in which the deceased was dressed, the bearers were Walter Haigh, Kimball C. McLaughlin, John McLaughlin, Clinton Silver, Michael Cassidy and Arthur Wilson. Douglas Brothers of this town had charge of the ceremonies and burial took place in Pine Grove cemetery. Mrs. Austin was 36 years, 8 months of age and was well known in Methuen being the daughter-in-law of John Austin of Pleasant street.

TO PENSION FIREMEN.

LYNN, April 10.—Three ordinances were passed to be enrolled and three others introduced at the meeting of the common council tonight.

From the committee came reports in favor of the passage of an ordinance increasing the salary of the sealer of weights and measures from $500 to $800. Messrs. Rich and Goodrich opposed the measure but the measure was adopted by a vote of 13 to 8, and the council refused reconsideration.

The ordinance fixing $50 per month as the amount to be paid firemen totally disabled while performing duty was ordered enrolled by a unanimous vote. This action is taken under the vote passed by the people at the last election in favor of pensioning firemen.

Ordained to the Ministry.

The council for the examination and acceptance of the Rev. George F. Green of Fall River, the newly selected pastor of the First Baptist church convened Wednesday afternoon at 2.30 o'clock in the church to examine the candidate. The council was composed of the pastor and two delegates from each church in the Merrimack River Baptist association.

At the evening exercises, eminent clergymen of the denomination in New England participated, among whom were the Rev. Dr. Barbour of Boston, Dr. English of Newton Centre, Dr. Rowley of Fall River, Rev. W. T. Green of Natick, R. I., and Rev. E. P. Tuller of this city.

The exercises included much fine singing by a large and select choir composed of leading local talent. Among the pieces which were sung were "Gounod's 'Unfold, Ye Portals,' and 'From Thy Love as a Father,' also 'Grant Us Thy Peace,' Nevin."

The public and especially the pastors of the city churches are cordially invited to be present.

Rev. Mr. Green was born in Fall River and received his early instructions in the public schools of that city, graduated from the high school in 1888. He then entered the counting room of the Massachusetts Manufacturing Co., as bookkeeper and remained with the company for four years at the end of which time in the fall of '92 he began his college course at the University of New Hampshire. He graduated in '96 with the title of A. B. His entry into Newton Theological institution followed in the fall of '96 and with the class of '99, he completed his course.

While at the university Rev. Mr. Green was a member of the editorial board of the college daily and his entire record at college is a very fine one.

The new pastor resides at 274 Haverhill street. It is the hope of the community that he will find his new field a pleasant one.

DR ENLIND WINNING FAME.

Dr. K. Arvid Enlind, formerly of this city, who was recently elected president of the Enlind Manufacturing Company, incorporated under the laws of New Jersey and capitalized in the sum of $1,000,000 is winning renown as the inventor of the bicycle-proof pneumatic wheel for bicycles and automobiles. Dr. Enlind will be remembered was resident physician at the Lawrence General hospital in 1893-94, and went from here to Connecticut, where he has been practicing his profession with marked success in New Britain and in Bridgeport and vicinity. Dr. Enlind recently returned from an extended trip through the South and West and to Paris of Europe. The journey, which was undertaken for the benefit of his health, occupied two years. Dr. Enlind was accompanied by his wife on the trip, which resulted in the complete restoration of his health. Dr. Enlind writes to a Lawrence friend, stating that the loss of his health was due to overwork, having conducted a sanatorium of his own besides attending to his extensive medical practice.

In regard to his invention, the Doctor writes: "The company that bears my name is shortly about to commence the manufacture of one of my inventions, and am quite confident that we are going to make a good thing of it. We expect to turn out a pneumatic wheel for either bicycle or automobiles that is puncture proof to such an extent that a nail or tack cannot be driven through it, and at the same time to be absolutely non-slipping on an ice covered grade. An automobile with my tire attached can be driven up Mt. Washington without slipping an inch, even if the entire distance be covered with ice as smooth as glass."

LOTTERY FOR THE MINISTER, TOO.

In Cripple Creek, a sturdy miner drove up to the minister's house with a young woman, to whom he desired to be married. When the ceremony was concluded and the minister's fee came up, the happy man discovered that he had left his money in his other trousers.

"What's your usual fee?" he asked.

"Sometimes we get $2, sometimes $5," said the parson.

"Then that ain't no usual about it," decided the happy man, quickly adding: "Tell me what I'll do, mister; I'll gamble with yer. I'll wait a year, an' if this pans out O K I'll give ye $10, an' if it don't—He smiled.—San Francisco Wave."

Nothing in the Wide World has such a record for absolutely curing female ills and kidney troubles as has Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Medicines that are advertised to cure everything cannot be specific for anything.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will not cure every kind of illness that may afflict men, women and children, but proof is monumental that it will and does cure all the ills peculiar to women.

This is a fact indisputable and can be verified by more than a million women.

If you are sick don't experiment, take the medicine that has the record of the largest number of cures.

Wanted a Cadetship.

There is a remarkable document on file at the War Department, the existence of which was unknown until a short time ago, when it was accidentally discovered. It is a letter written by Charles Pinckney Sumner to the Hon. Philip Barbour of Virginia, Secretary of War under John Quincy Adams, asking for the appointment of his eldest son, Charles Sumner, to the Military Academy at West Point. The application was ignored. Charles Sumner went to Harvard University instead, and died a Senator of the United States and not a disgruntled Major of infantry. The letter, written on a paper of fine texture, yellow with age. The penmanship is fine and neat, and very much resembles the manuscript of the Senator forty years after. The endorsement on the back is:

"Massachusetts—Sumner. Appn. in his behalf by his 'Father, C. P. Sumner.' The letter is as follows:

Boston 22 November, 1825.

"Sir: My eldest son, Charles Sumner, is desirous of being admitted as a member of the military academy at West Point. He will be 15 years old in January next. He is of good constitution & in good health, altho unusually studious. He is well acquainted with Latin and Greek, is somewhat acquainted with Arithmetic & Algebra & French. He is exceedingly well acquainted with history and Geography, both ancient and modern. He knows the scenes of many of the distinguished battles of ancient and modern times, & the characters of the Heroes who figured in them. He has a strong sense of patriotic pride; and a devotion to the welfare and glory of his country. He is now at the Latin School in Boston, & in August next will be qualified to enter the university at Cambridge."

"He prefers the academy at West Point. He is the oldest grandson of the deceased Maj. Job Sumner, who served with reputation in the army of the revolution, whose only child I am."

"It is not proper for me to devote him like Hannibal to a military life, and at the present age I will not attempt it; but I have the most respectful opinion of the education that is generally bestowed upon the Selected Sons of the Republic whether a young man is destined to a military or a civil life."

"I have not merit of my own. If my boy's character and qualifications give him any claim to Your good will, I hope he will receive it. I can produce but few certificates in his favor. I venture to recommend him myself, as it may possibly be that no other recommendation is necessary. My name, and Judge Story, if questioned can say whether or not I would recommend anybody, son or no son, whom I did not believe to be a person of merit. The President himself may possibly not be an utter stranger to my name."

"I form no unreasonable expectation, & am not liable to any painful disappointment, whatever may be the result of this application."

"I am, sir, your sincerely respectful humble servant."

Charles Pinckney Sumner, Secretary at War."

SOCIETY WOMEN AS NURSES.

The rush of English society ladies to South Africa for the purpose of becoming nurses calls to mind a story told by one of the American soldiers who came from Cuba to Montauk Point after the war with Spain. It will be remembered that many ladies who were prominent in New York society ministered to the wants of the men who were gathered at camp Wicket. Some of them carried a small delicacy or a comfort, and others, with their own hands, but a large number of the sweet creatures volunteered to nurse the sick and wounded.

"There was a member of my company in the hospital," says the veteran from whom this story comes, "but he had a very little business there. He was a good looking fellow and had sprained one of his ankles wrestling with another soldier on the transport coming home. On the day after we got to camp he was lying in a cot in the hospital and pretty soon the nurses from New York began passing through to attend to the wants of the sick. Piling another man with the lame ankle, told me about it after dark. It was a long and weary evening and a tall, willowy, beautiful nurse stopped beside him."

"Poor noble fellow," she said with her trembling lips, "how you must suffer. Can I do anything for you?"

"Yes," he answered, "You will find a bucket of water over there near the door. There must be a cloth near it. Wash my face please."

She did as he had told her to, and when she was all through she said:

"Thanks. This is the 27th time I have had my face washed today, but you are the first nurse who didn't go ahead and do the job without asking me any questions or permitting me to lodge a protest."—Chicago Times Herald.

CHICAGO STREET CAR EPISODE.

Passengers on an east bound Archer avenue car were thrown into a panic last night by the prospect of a hold-up. At the sight of a wild-eyed man jerking the bell rope and flourishing a huge revolver, timid women sought shelter behind brave men and the men behind the stove.

Quiet was restored when the real cause of the disturbance was learned. Car 1511 had been about to cross the switch tracks at Archer avenue when the conductor asked the man for his fare. He took a $5 bill and was about to make change when he saw the warning lights ahead.

"Wait a moment," he said and darted ahead with his lantern.

"Stop the car!" roared the excited passenger, who saw the conductor and his $5 disappearing down the track. "He's got my money."

The would-be holdup man had reached the front door when the car flashed past the conductor who was waiting for the rear platform. The passenger tried to jump from the car, but found it impossible because of the Archer avenue bridge structure. Then he made a mad dash for the rear door, where the conductor met him with a polite, "Don't forget your change, sir."—Chicago Record.

EXONERATED.

"The evidence," said the judge, "shows that you threw a stone at this man."

"Sure," replied Mrs. O'Hoolihan, "an' the looks av the man shows more than that, yer honor. It shows that Oi hit him."—Chicago News.

MARK LEMON

Was one of the best known and most valued contributors to London "Punch" in its early days.

His wit flavored the paper and added much to what was already good.

Lemon today is good in various kinds of punch, and many people think a bit of lemon is a good addition to a cup of tea.

It takes more than the flavor of lemon alone, however, to insure a choice cup of tea.

You must first buy a tea that is right, such tea, for instance, as Chase & Sanborn sell.

Their package teas are undoubtedly the best that money can buy, put up as they are in pound and half-pound air-tight leaded forms.

This prevents any loss of strength, and secures to the consumer their original freshness and quality.

Their leading kinds are Kolonoor, an English breakfast tea, the Orloff, a Formosa Oolong, and the Orange Pekoe, noted for its delightful flavor.

They are all equally good, however, and each the best of their kind.

Sold only in pound and half-pound air-tight packages.

One pound makes over 200 cups.

After a residence in that city of eight years she became a resident of Stevens village and so continued. Four months ago symptoms of heart trouble appeared and this ailment had since assumed such a serious phase as to cause physicians to anticipate fatal results. Deceased was in every way a most estimable woman, devoted to the interests and cares of the homelife in the truest and noblest fashion. In her relation to others she was kind, generous and neighborly and because of these qualities she will be long remembered as a useful and valued woman in the community. In the immediate family other than the husband there remain a son Charles, the local printer and publisher; Misses Emily, Violet L., Frances M., Joseph, Fred and Daisy. Mrs. Thomas H. Broderick of town is the second daughter. She also leaves two sisters in England and one in Bridgeport, Conn., all of whom are married.
